NEW LAUNCHES, INNOVATIVE PRODUCTS AND INSPIRATIONAL DESIGN

ON DISPLAY

Fluted glass is a favoured trend this year, and this striking cabinet from Davonport's Holkham collection adds a touch of industrial style to more traditional Shaker-style cabinetry. With its pared-back design, it already bears all the hallmarks of an enduring classic. Kitchens, from £35,000, Davonport.

SHINE ON

The use of metals create standout appeal in the kitchen, and Ledbury Studio's Metallics Collection offers a new way of using pewter on kitchen cabinetry. It's given texture with hammers and heat, while acids are used to develop an aged look. Kitchens, from £50,000, Ledbury Studio.

STAINLESS STEEL, FROM £257.

HOT TROPICS

Could your bathroom walls do with some livening up? Make a bold statement with new digitally printed tropical ceramic tiles by Otto Tiles. Take your pick from three Amazon-inspired looks, which feature cheetahs, flamingos and birds of paradise, combined with leafy foliage. The designs are printed on handmade tiles by Otto's Turkish craftspeople and are not only waterproof but scratch-proof and stain resistant. Amazonia printed ceramic tiles, £180sq m, Otto Tiles & Design.

MIX IT UP

Bring some vintage elegance into your bathroom with BC Designs' new Victrian bath shower mixer, which can be mounted either on the rim of the bath or on solid brass freestanding legs if you have no tap holes. The telephone mixer tap is available in six finishes, including chrome, nickel and brushed gold. Taps, £628; stand, £360, BC Designs.
