Kitchens

Planning this key room requires careful consideration to maximise the space and make it work for you. CHRISTABEL CHUBB rounds up plenty of bright ideas from houses round the world

In this London project by Jessica Schuster Design, a neutral palette makes for a serene and inviting kitchen, while texture is introduced in the form of the aptly named 'Jessica' stools in oak, leather and steel from McGee & Co ($1,035 each). Kitchen specialists Ledbury Studio enlisted the help of Lara Bohinc of Bohinc Studio to create this eclectic worktop. Made using a selection of marbles, the unique design creates a focal point in the centre of the room. Kitchens from Ledbury Studio start at £50,000.
